

● Consent Clearance Log

Use case: For any story involving TFGBV, sensitive survivor testimony, screenshots, AI summaries, or unverifiable claims. Helps track who said what, how consent was obtained, and when editorial sign-off occurred.

Survivor Consent

Field	Description
Name (or pseudonym)	Amina (pseudonym used to protect identity)
Contact method	Private WhatsApp message
Interview date & time	January 11, 2025, 3:30 PM
Interview format	Recorded voice interview, with consent
Who gathered consent?	Myself, LOKOSSOU Mèssomahu Bienvenue, trainee journalist at Le Révélateur
Consent to publish?	Yes, with anonymization
Consent to name?	Anonymize
Consent to quote verbatim?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes
Consent expiration	Valid for 60 days from interview date
Notes	The survivor initially hesitated but was reassured through empathetic communication. Specific conditions: no photos or detailed location info to be published for her safety.

Usage Disclaimer

This resource was developed by Mwende Mukwanyaga for African Women in Media (AWiM) as part of the Kigali Declaration-IPDC project supported by UNESCO. It is intended for educational and non-commercial use only. You are welcome to share, adapt, or build upon this material with appropriate credit. Please retain this notice in all copies or adaptations.

Credit must include: Developed by Mwende Mukwanyaga for AWiM as part of the Kigali Declaration-IPDC project, supported by UNESCO.

For permissions beyond these terms, please contact AWiM directly.